My dear Mr. Weisberg:

I talked To Mr Urban of Commerce Street News stand and Mr. Gilliland Mgr of Doubleday Book Stores about whitewash and gave the letter your name and address. He said he would order from you today. Mr Urban expects to hear from you as I told him of my note to you yesterday. When you have whitewash on the shelves of (and) stands

of such two booksellers the Dallas area will be completely
opened to whitewash.
Where present demand
is unsupplied.

Mr. Gilliland inquired as to a source
from which the entire record of the proceedings before
the Warren Commission in 26 or 27 Volumes of paperback
could be had. I told him that I am not aware of such works availability but that we have order to you for whitewash he might require. Send a copy of such at once. Also a copy of Gerald Ford's Portrait of the Assassin

and Red Roses of Texas
or some such title
which I understand
was Long Desk Cuckolded and printed. Any information which

(must)

you can furnish the sources of such three works will be appreciated.

Sincerely.
